PART 2045 - GENERAL

SUBPART FF - CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION APPEALS SYSTEM

§2045.1551 General.

The Civil Service Commission has an Appeals System. Employees can have decisions to take adverse action against them examined again. See Chapter 772 of the Federal Personnel Manual (FPM).

§2045.1552 Employees.

This applies to most employees of the Farmers Home Administration but not State and County Committeemen. The letter of notification to take adverse action gives the procedure to make an appeal to the Civil Service Commission.

§2045.1553 Actions appealable under the Civil Service Commission Appeals System.

- (a) Removal.
- (b) Suspension for more than 30 days.
- (c) Reduction in rank or pay.
- (d) Furlough without pay.
- (e) Involuntary resignation, optional retirement, and reduction in rank or pay.

§2045.1554 Availability of regulations.

See or ask for a copy of Chapter 772 of the FPM at any State Office, the Finance Office, St. Louis, Missouri, or the Personnel Division of the National Office.
